Officers input

Chief Connor

- The tanker has been sent out and repaired. (Scratches painted)
- The Levant wildfire drill will be held on April 9th with a rain date of the 16th. The next meeting to discuss this drill will be on March 15th from 6-8 pm @ Central Fire in Bangor. We need to be present if we want to be a part of this live fire drill. Is there still interest? Anyone able to attend the meeting in Bangor?
- With temperatures warming up we need to be ready as always for cold water rescues. Training went well for the numbers we had present.
- Discussion on calls for the month?
- 474 & 472 now have a 5" to 4" LDH adapters for hooking the hydrant.
- Looking to use the Fire Recovery money from car accidents to get everyone a 2nd set of gear. With all the information out there now with regards to firefighters and cancer this is another way to help limit everyone's exposures to these deadly toxins.
- Central Maine Fire Attack School is April 23rd - 24th see an officer if you want to attend.
- The Ladder has a broken windshield. Use @ your discretion until fixed.

When going on calls please ensure that both plugins have been removed from the truck and the door has been closed behind you after exiting the bay.

- August 13th is the date for Dexter days this year. Anyone interested in attending their planning meetings and keeping us up to speed on the new developments? (Red hot dog eating contest, judging, participants, rubber duck race?? Other events we may want to do to?)
